SUMMARY STATEMENT:

The consultant council hired to draft a new zoning ordinance for the city has completed the draft; in order to adopt same and to change regulations or boundaries, council needs to adopt a method to insure proper notice to citizens and a protest procedure. The attached corresponds with the authority of home rule cities in establishing these procedures. Council may change the type of notice, other than publication in the newspaper that will be required. Council may also either approve or delete Sections 2 and 3.
