

A Proclamation Recognizing the City of Bristol's Police Youth Summer Camp Program "Camp Challenge"

Whereas, the City of Bristol invests in the future of our youth by providing a safe and fun learning environment through the Police Department's Camp Challenge; and

Whereas, Camp Challenge promotes youth involvement in safe and structured activities that enable them to build upon their talents and interests, develop self-confidence, positive social relationships and leadership potential; and

Whereas, the Police Department staff and volunteers at Camp Challenge provide positive adult mentors to the youth of our community; and

Whereas, Camp Challenge supports the youth of Bristol and their families by providing a nurturing environment where children are allowed to interact in a positive way with police officers; and

Whereas, Camp Challenge affords young people the opportunity to learn new skills and participate in new and challenging experiences;

Now, Therefore, I, Margaret Feierabend, Mayor of the City of Bristol Tennessee, do hereby recognize the Police Department's Camp Challenge and ask that our citizens support the Bristol Tennessee Police Department in acknowledgment of the many contributions they make in the lives of our youth in the City of Bristol Tennessee.

This 7th day of September 2010.
