Breast Cancer Awareness Luncheon features

Virginia Supreme Court Justice Elizabeth McClanahan

Understanding breast cancer and how to live with and fight it is one of the biggest steps you can take on the road to wellness. What better way to educate yourself than to sit and talk to someone who is a four year breast cancer survivor. The Bristol Parks and Recreation Department will be hosting one of those survivors, Buchanan County native and recently appointed Virginia Supreme Court Justice Elizabeth McClanahan. Ms. McClanahan is the mother of two children ages 9 and 11. She is a former partner at Penn, Stuart & Eskridge Law Firm in Abingdon, Va.

Mrs. Mallory Cross, Seniors Program Coordinator stated, "We are most honored to have Justice McClanahan speak at our event, sharing her journey and survival with us." To attend the Breast Cancer Awareness Luncheon slated for Thursday, October 13, 2011 at The Centre located on Highway 421. The luncheon will begin at 12:00 Noon. There is a minimal cost of $7.00 per person. Anyone wanting to attend may make reservations by contacting Mrs. Cross at 423-764-4012.
