WE ARE HONORING VETERAN, Major Michelle Ruehl

Major Michelle Ruehl is a native of the Metro Detroit area. She graduated from Detroit World Outreach Christian Academy and went off to the U.S. Air Force Academy to earn her commission as a Second Lieutenant in 2003. Michelle then went to Pilot Training and earned her wings in 2004. She has flown the T-34, MC-12, C-130, and T-53. She has over 800 combat hours flying in Afghanistan and she is now stationed back at the Air Force Academy as an English Professor, Instructor Pilot, and Therapeutic Riding Instructor for children and veterans with disabilities. She is married to Justin, a Southwest Airlines Pilot, and has a new baby, Kalais Skye.
