Community Forum

Dave Baucom – Goshen – Mr. Baucom stated that he is a foster parent of several children and on January 10, 2014, one of his foster children ran away and Mr. Baucom contacted the Goshen Police Department directly in order to have the incident on record. Mr. Baucom left three messages for Chief Snyder but did not receive a return phone call back. The child did return to the home later that evening. Chief Snyder asked if Mr. Baucom had left a voicemail message – Mr. Baucom responded that he had not but had left messages with the secretary. Chief Snyder apologized for not returning the phone call and that he did not recall receiving the messages. Chief Snyder suggested for Mr. Baucom to leave voicemail messages in the future and Chief Snyder in addition gave Mr. Baucom an alternate contact phone number.

Jim Constable – Fayetteville – Distributed public records policy to Trustee Swift and a funding alternative to Chief Steve Pegram for the fire department for his review. Mr. Constable asked about tiffs and questioned the Fiscal Officer term expiration date of 12/31/2015.

Jack Carey – Goshen – Mr. Carey stated he hopes the board does what is right for Goshen and that he understands change takes time. He stated that the residents and the board “need a business of understanding.” He also asked about the Zoning Commission Board.
