Discussion of Zoning Case #241

Teri Donahoe stated that the property at 6756 Goshen Road was presently zoned R-3 and the owner Linda Glass would like to have it re-zoned to Planned Business Development. The plans for this zone change were sent to the Clermont County Zoning Commission. Goshen Township Zoning received a letter from the Zoning Commission with no objections to the change. All policies and procedures were followed regarding the Public Hearing.

Public Comment

Mr. James Constable stated he had no objections to the zone change. He mentioned the zoning map was not an official map because it has not been accepted by the Trustees and signed. He asked if the property at 6756 Goshen Road was in the Goshen Township Overlay District. He was told it was not. The boundaries for the Overlay District end behind United Dairy Farmers.
