

Do you know someone who devotes his or her time to helping others?

Do you know someone who has committed him or herself to promoting respect, tolerance or neighborly cooperation in Lincolnwood?

The Lincolnwood Human Relations Commission wants to know!

The Lincolnwood Human Relations Commission (LHRC) is seeking nominations of individuals whose activities advance the mission of the LHRC by promoting understanding, mutual respect, appreciation of diversity, and/or neighborly cooperation. The recipient must exhibit outstanding personal leadership and accomplishment in public service, human rights and/or promoting understanding. Recipients may be selected for their accomplishments resulting from volunteer service or through activities as part of their employment.

The recipient will be honored at a Village Board meeting and presented with a plaque in recognition of his/her accomplishment/s. The recipient's name will also be added to a perpetual plaque on display in the Village Hall.

If you would like to nominate someone for the Human Relations Commission Award, please submit a letter describing the nominee and how the community has benefited from his/her work. Letters of nomination, including any supporting materials (articles, photos, etc.), should be submitted along with contact information for both the nominee and the person submitting the nomination letter. Nominations should be mailed to the LHRC at the address listed below between January 1st and April 20.
