FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Talented Dogs Invited to “Strut their Stuff” this September

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – Join Dr. Gary Clemons, host of Pet Talk on 55 WKRC AM, at the debut of the “My Dog’s Got Talent Show” on Saturday, September 26, from 3-6pm in Montgomery Park.

Sponsored by Nutro Products, Puppywood Pet Resort, Little Red Gift Shop and Pet People, the event features five judged categories including: Most Obedient, Best Dressed, Best Looking, Best Trick for owners who are 12 years old and under, and Best Trick for owners who are 13 years and older. The cost is $5 per dog per judged category and registration is required online by Thursday, September 24, at www.montgomeryohio.org. Proceeds benefit the SPCA.

Don’t think your pooch is ready for a judged category? Not to worry! Enter your dog in the longest stay contest, a dog race or a Popsicle eating contest. A donation to the SPCA is all you’ll need to enter, and you can register the day of the event.

A K-9 demonstration, dog whisperer, pet spa, and healing touch will be included in the day’s events along with booths featuring dog treats, dog groomer, custom leashes, pet fashions and furniture, in-home dog training service and a pet photographer.

If you’re looking to add to your current stable of pets or want to own your first one, non-profit groups like the SPCA and the Animal Adoption Foundation will be at the show to provide an opportunity to adopt your new best friend.

Bring a non-perishable pet food item to donate to Meals on Wheels for Pets and you will be entered in a drawing to win a gift basket valued at $200!

Whether or not they are participating in any categories, leashed, non-aggressive dogs of any breed, size and age are welcome.

To provide some additional fun for humans, food and beverages will be served by Hot Doggin’ It, and there will be face painting and caricature drawings, too.

Visit www.montgomeryohio.org or call (513) 891-2424 for more information.
