Patriotic Concert Kicks Off Fourth of July Celebration!

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – Montgomery’s traditional Independence Day celebration begins July 3 with the annual patriotic concert by the Blue Ash/Montgomery Symphony Orchestra Presented by Ohio National Financial Services. The free concert will be performed from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Montgomery Park.

The celebration continues on July 4th with the Independence Day Parade. The procession begins at 10:00 a.m. when participants depart from various assembly locations along Cooper Road, proceed east to Montgomery Road and travel north to Montgomery Park where the parade will disperse.

This year’s parade will be even bigger and better with a plethora of floats, vintage cars, military units, and official Town Crier, the Nolan Carson Memorial Color Guard, elected officials, the Syrian Clowns and the Lone Star Jazz Band. Also making their annual appearance will be the Sycamore High School Marching Band and the Santa Goody Bag Band.

Following the parade, the celebration continues at the Festival in Montgomery Park from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. In addition to a variety of food booths, visitors will enjoy a pet show and fun family activities. Musical entertainment will be performed by the Lone Star Jazz Band, and the popular rock-style music of Waiting on Ben.
