

Notification of News Release

6/1/2010

For Further Information Contact

Ellen Hall
(513) 792-8358
ehall@ci.montgomery.oh.us

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Concert and Parade Planned to Celebrate Independence Day

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – “Something Groovy...1976” is the theme of the annual Independence Day concert performed by the Blue Ash / Montgomery Symphony Orchestra. Held at Montgomery Park from 7:30-9:00 p.m. on July 3, show goers will hear everything from “I will Survive” to “Battle Hymn of the Republic.”

The theme blends the drum and fife music of 1776 with the groovy tunes of 1976. Local talent will perform on stage and under the disco ball between the clash of the cymbals and the roar of the cannon. Bring lawn chairs, spread out a blanket and relax. This grand community event is something you won't want to miss!

After celebrating the July 4 holiday with family and friends, join us for Montgomery's annual Independence Day Parade on Monday, July 5.

Beginning at 10:00am, parade participants will depart from various assembly locations along Cooper Rd., proceed east to Montgomery Rd. then travel north to Montgomery Park, where a family-oriented festival will be held from 11:00am to 2:00pm.

This year's parade will be even bigger with a plethora of floats, vintage cars, military units, Town Crier, elected officials, the Syrian Clowns, the Blue Chip Jazz Band, Sycamore High School Marching Band and the Santa Goody Bag Band. Plus, kids can ride their bikes in the parade! Decorate your bike in red, white and blue and meet up at Montgomery Elementary parking lot on Montgomery Road at 9:45 a.m. to join in the parade. Cyclists will end at City Hall. Participants receive a Popsicle and free game tickets to the festival!

###