City Council Recognizes Rich Heritage

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – On Wednesday, 5/5/2010, Montgomery City Council designated May as National Historic Preservation month in the City of Montgomery.

The City of Montgomery is proud to be home to many authentic architectural representations of the City's rich heritage, including eight buildings listed in the National Historic Register. City Council recognized this heritage enriches the lives of the citizens of Montgomery and that it is in the public's interest to preserve this legacy so future generations may benefit from the cultural, aesthetic, educational, economic and inspirational benefits of their heritage.

City Council called upon all citizens to recognize the City's historical past and to protect these precious resources for the enjoyment of future generations.
