FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – All Fired Up! coming to Montgomery May 22

The Montgomery Arts Commission is sponsoring the Third Annual All Fired Up! Art Show and Sale on Sunday, May 22 from 1 to 5pm in Swaim Park, corner of Cooper and Zig Zag Roads.

This “rain or shine” event will feature diverse works such as ceramics, jewelry, glass, metalwork and two-dimensional art pieces by area artists.

Examples of these diverse works will be available for purchase. Patrons will be able to enjoy live jazz music performed by the Bobby Sharpe Trio. Children’s art activities will be led by the Art Machine, a regional non-profit dedicated to encouraging children to explore the visual arts.

The event is curated by Lisa Merida-Paytes, the Gallery Director for Funke Fired Arts.

“The Montgomery Arts Commission is excited to present the 3rd Annual All Fired Up! Art Show and Sale. All Fired Up is the only art show of its type in the region. The show will feature a wide variety of works including functional pieces and purely decorative arts. This truly exceptional event opens up the senses of our citizens and gives them an opportunity to explore arts and culture in their community,” noted Montgomery Arts Commission Chair Ray Miller.
