FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – Ansel Adams Original Photography Part of Arts Sampler.

The City's 17-piece, Ansel Adams collection of original photographs will be on display for the Montgomery Arts Commission's annual Arts Sampler event on Saturday, February 12 from 2 to 4pm. The collection, a gift to the City by an anonymous donor in 1985, will be shown in the Montgomery City Hall Council Chambers, 10101 Montgomery Road, and will be featured with chamber music provided by the Blue Ash/Montgomery Symphony Orchestra. This is a free event and open to the public.

"Very few people are aware that we have a 17-piece world renowned collection of art in our council chambers. A very generous benefactor anonymously donated an extraordinary gift to our community and we are pleased to showcase the work of Ansel Adams for the all to see and enjoy while listening to an incredible BAMSO string quartet," said Ray Miller, Chair of the Montgomery Arts Commission.

This effort is in conjunction with the ArtsWave Arts Sampler sponsored by Macy's. ArtsWave is hosting a series of events all over the Greater Cincinnati region to promote creative experiences through free events. Visit www.theartswave.org for more information and a detailed schedule.

Montgomery's Arts Commission focuses its attention on promoting the visual and performing arts for the benefit of its community members. Comprised of seven volunteer members, the commission meets the first Monday of each month at 5pm in City Hall.
