FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 6, 2011

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – Montgomery City Manager Cheryl Hilvert Retires

City Manager Cheryl Hilvert has notified the Montgomery City Council that she is retiring from the City. Ms. Hilvert has more than 30 years in public sector employment. While she finalizes her retirement benefits with the state, she is stepping down as City Manager and accepting the role as Advisor to the City Manager effective November 1, 2011.

Montgomery City Council has designated Assistant City Manager Wayne Davis to fill the vacancy on an interim basis. City Council will be developing a process to permanently fill the position of City Manager.

Ms. Hilvert's development of the High Performance Organization model within the City has created a lasting legacy which has and will continue to serve the City well.
