FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) –Music, Food, Games and Baseball are Star Attractions at Montgomery’s Annual July 4th Festival.

After the Independence Day Parade concludes, stay for family fun-time at Montgomery Park’s Independence Day Festival. Fun kids’ games and activities, corn on the cob, hotdogs, lemonade, music and an All-Star baseball game round out the great plans for this year’s Montgomery July 4th Festival. The Festival, held in Montgomery Park on Monday, July 4, runs from 11:00am to 2:00pm.

The Montgomery Fire Department’s corn roast, Graeter’s, Pit-To-Plate, Blue Ash/Montgomery Rotary Club, Maui Wowi and Rudino’s will offer tasty treats and refreshing drinks at this year’s Festival.

After the games and activities, including the Wizard’s Castle bounce house, sit in the shady area of Montgomery Park and cheer for your favorite furry friend at the annual Pet Show. Pet Show registration is from 12 noon to 1:00pm, with the festivities starting after 1:00pm.

If baseball is your game, sit hill-side and take in the noon ball game featuring the local Sycamore Baseball and Softball Association All-Stars. If music is your thing, Red Idle will perform from 11:00am to 2:00pm under the park shelter house.

After the July 4th festival, suit up and stop by SPLASHtacular at the Montgomery Community Pool from 2:00-4:00pm for more games, prizes and a really COOL time for the whole family.

There is something for every member of the family at Montgomery’s Annual July 4th Festival. For more information, please visit www.montgomeryohio.org or call 891-2424.
