FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio) – Pet Show featured at Montgomery’s Annual July 4th Festival.

All dogs, cats, critters and their humans are invited to join in the fun at the Pet Show featured at the Montgomery July 4th Festival in Montgomery Park. Registration is from 12 noon to 1pm with the Pet Show starting shortly after 1:00pm.

There will be many fun categories of awards with ribbons to the three top finishers. Categories may include curliest coat, longest ears and prettiest colors and all entries will receive a ribbon. Cats and exotic pets will compete in their own unique categories. Pets are also encouraged to dress in their finest outfits or most patriotic costumes for additional prize categories.

The Pet Show is located in a shady area of Montgomery Park with water and treats available to the furry companions. The event is coordinated by the Twin Lakes of Montgomery chartered Troop of American Heritage Girls #25 and their advisor, Carolyn Moore, and long-time Pet Show coordinator and volunteer, Lori Gerring.

Dog lovers should also note that the K-9 Kerplunk and Dog Fest returns this year on Labor Day, Monday, September 5, from 5:00pm to 8:00pm at the Montgomery Community Pool. This year’s event, sponsored by PetPeople and Puppywood Pet Resort, will feature entertainment, fun games, a dog show, great prizes and vendor booths displaying treats and gifts for your canine friends. Area non-profit animal shelters, Animal Friends and League of Animal Welfare, will bring along several animal friends available for adoption.
