FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(MONTGOMERY, Ohio)* –Montgomery’s Harvest Moon Family Festival is Great Family Fun!

Join the City of Montgomery for great family fun at the Harvest Moon Family Festival on Saturday, October 1 from 5:00-8:30 p.m. at Swaim Park (corner of Cooper and Zig Zag Roads). This fall festival offers s’mores, crafts, hayrides, food and all sorts of entertainment. Festival admission is free.

Under the tent, there will be free pumpkin painting, harvest bag crafting and face painting ($5.00). The harvest crafts and pumpkin painting are sponsored by Tracy’s Karate, Art Classes by Jen. Families will be able to join in the bonfire sing-alongs and s’mores roast around the fire pit. Hayrides and pony rides will entertain your littlest family members.

True tastes of the fall season such as hot cocoa and cider, beer, kettlecorn and s’mores kits will be available for purchase. Montgomery firefighters will be serving coney dogs and walking tacos. Kids can also explore a smokehouse and firetruck. The Wilder-Swaim House will be available for tours and local history lessons including a fun challenge game.

The City of Montgomery Recreation Department sponsors many special events and unique opportunities to engage citizens in the community.

“The Harvest Moon Festival is a great event that is perfect for families. This is our second largest and most popular event, next to Bastille Day, and everyone enjoys the mix of fall fun and frivolity on the site of this historic farm and adjacent to the Swaim-Wilder House,” explains Julie Machon, City of Montgomery Recreation and Leisure Living Services Coordinator.

Volunteers are still needed for this event. If interested in volunteering or for more information, please call 891-2424 or visit www.montgomeryohio.org.
