Chapter 151.3015 Montgomery's Zoning Code regulates political signs which includes, but is not limited to, the following restriction: Temporary signs shall be permitted to be erected in a window, or ground-mounted, for the purpose of political expression for a period not to exceed 135 days. Signs may not exceed 8 square feet, have more than 2 sides, not exceed 4 feet in height. Signs must be removed or replaced after 45 days to prevent waste, litter or debris. Each property owner is permitted up to 24 square feet of temporary signs during the designated time period. Corner lots may display 2 additional signs not to exceed 8 square feet and lots with more than 100 linear feet fronting on a single street may display 1 additional temporary sign not to exceed 8 square feet. Signs may not be illuminated nor placed in the public right-of-way, attached to any trees, utility poles, public benches, street lights, or any other form of public property, nor create traffic hazards or cause vision obstructions to drivers.

By signing this application, I acknowledge that I am authorized by the candidate to make this application. I/we agree to conform to the above guidelines and all applicable laws of the City.
