TOWN HIRES NEW HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR

The Town of Mooresville is pleased to announce the hiring of Keli Greer as Director of Human Resources effective November 16. Greer will oversee the daily operations of the Human Resources Department and report to the Town Manager. Her responsibilities will include compensation, employee relations, training and development, recruitment and selection, benefits, performance evaluation programs, and personnel records management. Greer will participate as part of the Town's management team and advise the Town Manager on personnel-related issues.

A North Carolina native, Greer comes to the Town of Mooresville with over 17 years of human resources experience. Most recently, she served as the Director of Human Resources for the City of Roanoke, Virginia.

"This position is essential to the effective function of the Town," said Town Manager Steve Husemann. "Mrs. Greer will assist every Town department and the decisions she makes will have a long-term impact on the organization. I am glad we were able to attract someone with her personality, experience and expertise to this vital position."

Greer has a Masters of Public Affairs from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She is a certified Professional of Human Resources and a member of the International Personnel Management Association and the Society for Human Resource Management.

"The Town of Mooresville's greatest asset is its employees who provide the community with outstanding services on a daily basis," said Greer. "I am pleased to have the opportunity to work with the Town to build upon this strength."
