Board Appoints Smith as Town Manager

MOORESVILLE, N.C. - During the Town Board meeting on June 6, the Town Board of Commissioners announced the appointment of Erskine Smith as Mooresville's next Town Manager. Smith has been serving as Interim Town Manager since Steve Husemann resigned in January.

At the time of Smith's appointment to the position of interim, commissioners offered a direction of "achieving the goals of the Board and Town by moving forward and building a team to implement our vision for the future."

Smith has worked for the Town for 23 years and has served as Zoning Administrator, Planning Director, Assistant Town Manager and Interim Town Manager during his tenure. Born and raised in Mooresville, Smith is an active member of the Race City Civitan Club, Mooresville Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and the Mooresville Foundation for Excellence in Education. He is a retired volunteer firefighter and received the Chamber's Citizen of the Year award in 2001.

"I wish to thank the Board for the opportunity and privilege of serving the citizens of Mooresville as Town Manager," said Smith. "This is the achievement of a life-long dream and I am delighted that it comes true in my hometown."

Smith and his wife, Connie, have three adult sons, Branch and his wife, Misti, Matthew and David.
