

Modern Garbage Collection Update

We just received word from Modern that the garbage collection make-up date previously scheduled for Saturday will no longer take place. Instead, those residents with regularly scheduled pickup on Wednesdays will have garbage collection this Wednesday, February 6 and those regularly scheduled on Thursdays will now take place this Thursday, February 7. Additional items placed on the side of the road due to missed collection will be accommodated. We apologize for any inconvenience.