

Press Release

"The County of Niagara, on March 15th, declared a county state of emergency. In keeping with the intent of the City of Niagara Falls to work in cooperation and coordination with state and county officials during this pandemic, I am declaring a public health emergency in the City of Niagara Falls and directing the following actions to be taken. This is an evolving situation and so further information may develop as we move forward." – Mayor Robert M. Restaino

- The John Duke Center and the La Salle Senior Center will be closed until further notice with the exception of the Nutrition Program which will be open Monday March 16th but will be suspended after March 16th until further notice.
- All City Youth Programs are canceled until further notice.
- All City boards & commissions that meet at City Hall at 4pm or later are canceled until further notice.
- City Offices are open for business and city employees should take appropriate health precautions.
- Covid-19 Niagara County Hotline: 1-888-364-3065