BLOCK PARTY INFORMATION

Village of Romeoville

Where Community Matters

A block party is a great way to connect and interact with your neighbors. Participants of the Block Party must comply with the rules and regulations that the Village has set forth. The application must be completed and returned to the Village at least 2 weeks prior to the event.

Block Party Rules and Regulations:

- Monitor the barricades so that public safety personnel and equipment are able to pass through if needed
- No person under 21 years of age shall consume/possess alcoholic beverages
- No stages/moonjumps/tents are allowed on public property which includes streets and sidewalks
- Pick up any debris created by the event
- No music shall extend past 11:00 p.m.
- Block party must conclude by 11:30 p.m.
- No person/persons shall engage in disorderly conduct or behavior intending to breach the public peace
- For approval to be given, 51% of the residents residing on the block must give consent (signature form attached with packet)
- Violation of rules may result in arrest or prosecution.
- Per the Illinois Concealed Carry Act - 430 ILCS 66 Section 65(a)(10): "Any public gathering or special event conducted on property open to the public that requires the issuance of a permit from the unit of local government" shall be considered a prohibited area for the carrying of a concealed handgun (unless exempt by statute).
