

Westchester
gov.com

and

Westchester County has teamed up with Verizon Wireless to encourage residents to dispose of used cell phones in an environmentally friendly way, and at the same time, help victims of domestic abuse through the HOPELINE program.

A drop-off box for cell phones is now available outside the Rye City Clerk's Office located at 1051 Boston Post Road.