

Demonstration Rules

The following rules shall apply to all demonstrations within the City of Sarasota:

1. All participants shall use only the sidewalks and shall not interfere with or impede other pedestrian traffic or any vehicular traffic. Participants shall not use any other areas, whether public or private, grassy, paved, or otherwise, or any buildings, unless written permission has been granted by the property owner.
2. All City and County ordinances and State and Federal statutes shall be obeyed, including, but not limited to, noise ordinance and zoning codes, and all necessary permits shall be obtained.
3. The demonstration shall be peaceful and nonviolent at all times.
4. Neither pedestrians nor motorists may be accosted, obstructed, or harassed in any way.
5. All signs or posters shall contain no profanity, obscene language/pictures or hate speech.
6. All materials used shall be removed immediately upon the conclusion of the demonstration.
7. Participants shall park only in legal parking spaces and shall not exceed specified time limits. No special parking privileges are granted for demonstrations.
