As a follow up to last month's meeting on the above topic, it was agreed that the Commission will help in promoting this event by notifying the other businesses in town of the date and contact information concerning this event utilizing the internet correspondence data base that had been recently assembled. The Howland and Sargent Insurance Agency has agreed to host the next networking meeting at their facility. The scheduled date is February 15, 2011 and their theme is “Boot the Blues” Ample parking across the street from their office will be available as the date chosen coincides with the day that the Italian Villa is closed.

Discussion/ fire marshall inspection fees

At the prior EDC meeting, members were given a list of fire Marshall Inspection fees imposed by the Town of Somers as well as a comparative list of fees for similar services performed from surrounding towns. The review of these fees was initiated because of numerous complaints received from artisans, venders, and participants in the Four Town Fair venues and activities. It was the consensus of the commission that the fees be reviewed by the First Selectmen with the recommendation that they be reviewed for fairness, equitability, and most importantly, are applied on a consistent basis.
