Old Business:

- None

New Business:

- Tarya Hall was introduced to everyone as the new youth program supervisor. Susan Wilkins was also introduced as the new aquatics supervisor.
- We went over the monthly review for September.
- Wallace Messer made to approve charging $1 per person as a spectator fee for any special events. This will be included in future contracts as well. Don Frady second it. All voted to approve it. Motion passed.
- We will host the second annual Sidewinder Disc Golf Tournament on Saturday, October 15. The other regional locations include Mars Hill, Black Mountain and Fletcher. There will be a recreation, open and coed division. The top four teams in each division will play in Asheville on Sunday.
- There will not be a masters basketball league this fall but we will have an adult league.
- Swim lessons have started. Everyone seems to really like the deck in the pool area.
- We will begin the Zest Quest nutrition program in a few weeks. This year it will take place at Junaluska Elementary and Riverbend Elementary.
- This week we will have a day camp on Wednesday and a dance for grades 3—5 on Friday. Also, we will have home school pe on Thursday.
- Wallace Messer made to approve hiring George Ivey to facilitate the fundraising project for the Waynesville Skate Park. Sarah Massie second it. All voted to approve it. Motion passed.
- The Mountaineer currently has the Readers Choice contest and we have purchased extra newspapers to ask our customers to vote for the Waynesville Recreation Center as the top health club / center.
- We will begin a new online newsletter instead of the rec reminders. This new publication will be called E-REC!

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:25 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rhett Langston
