Old Business:

- None

New Business:

- We will offer a volleyball camp, British Soccer Camp, Brazilian Soccer Camp, Crossfire Basketball Camp and On Court Academy Basketball Camp.
- The search continues for an aquatic supervisor. We have conducted several interviews and we hope to make an offer to someone before July.
- We now have new tv monitors on the exercise equipment in the Waynesville Recreation Center.
- Diane Strazzer is now a certified lifeguard. She has also hired her staff for the summer camp.
- We have passed a senior friendly certification offered by Haywood Community Connections and Western Carolina University. A total of 25% of our staff has to be trained and then we will be officially certified.
- It was decided to charge Manna Food Bank a fee for having a tennis tournament at Recreation Park. It was also decided to offer a discounted price of $6 per hour per court since it was for a cause and non-profit. Scotty Schulhofer and Lee Starnes each volunteered to sponsor a court not to exceed $100.
- Sara Massie made a motion to offer a rate for high school and college students if they provide an id from their school. The rate would be the same as seniors / handicapped individuals. Sara made the motion and Ginny second it. It passed. Rhett would pass the information along to the town manager for board approval.
- The new "Member of the Quarter" was announced. Her name is Ruby Maloney and her term is April 1—June 30.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:52 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rhett Langston
