

The map displays the following zoning districts across the City of Aurora:

- B-1: Light red areas, primarily in the central and eastern parts of the city.
- B-2: Red areas, scattered in the central and eastern parts.
- B-3: Dark red areas, located in the western and central parts.
- I-1: Purple areas, primarily in the northern and central parts.
- O-1: Dark blue areas, located in the northern part.
- PD-B: Red cross-hatch pattern, scattered in the central and eastern parts.
- PD-I: Purple cross-hatch pattern, scattered in the central and eastern parts.
- PD-R: Yellow cross-hatch pattern, scattered in the central and eastern parts.
- PD-R*: Brown dashed border, located in the central and eastern parts.
- R-2: Light yellow areas, primarily in the western and central parts.
- R-3: Yellow areas, scattered in the western and central parts.
- R-4: Light green areas, scattered in the western and central parts.
- R-5: Green areas, scattered in the western and central parts.
- R-6: Dark green areas, scattered in the western and central parts.
- R-7: Dark green areas, scattered in the western and central parts.
- RF: Light green areas, primarily in the western part.
- SWD: Dark purple areas, primarily in the northern part.

