

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

DECATUR HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

The Decatur Historic Preservation Commission will host a public meeting Thursday, February 25, 2021 at 6:00pm. The meeting will be held on the 1st floor in the Council Chambers of Decatur City Hall, 402 Lee Street, Decatur, AL. It will be to discuss the upcoming resurvey of Bank Street/Old Decatur National Register District. Updating the national register districts allows for expanded period of significance and increased participation in historic tax credit programs. The district has not been updated since 1985.

The consulting firm of Painter Preservation has been hired to conduct the resurvey and will join the meeting to discuss a brief history of the district, resurvey goals, and survey methodology, which includes field work walking through the neighborhood. A representative of Painter Preservation and city staff will be on hand to answer any questions.

Notice Posted February 5, 2021