City of Decatur to Host Public Input Session for 6th Avenue Corridor Project

DECATUR, AL – The City of Decatur, in partnership with Volkert, Inc.’s engineering team, will host a public input meeting for residents regarding the 6th Avenue corridor revitalization project on Tuesday, June 28, from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m., at Turner-Surles Community Center.

The input session will be a come-and-go event for attendees to share their thoughts on the corridor project. Feedback will be discussed in a small group setting with a project liaison.

Representatives of the City of Decatur and Volkert will be available to answer any questions.

“This is a great opportunity for residents to express their thoughts and for us to listen directly to the feedback we receive,” says City of Decatur Director of Development Dane Shaw. “This project is part of an exciting era for Decatur, and I look forward to the impact this will have on our entire community.”
