Starlight Movie Series

(Papillion) – Mayor James Blinn encourages everyone to come out to the city’s Sumtur Amphitheater and enjoy the Starlight Movie Series.

Watching movies “under the stars” has been an American tradition for decades. However, with the decline of the drive-in movie theater, the city’s Starlight Movie Series still allows people to experience a comfortable summer evening watching a movie while sitting outside. The bonus is it’s free.

The first movie was Friday, May 30th and saw over 350 people attend. The series continues through the summer with the “Bee Movie” on Friday, June 27th. On Friday, July 25th, you can see “Hair Spray.” The series concludes on Saturday, August 23rd, with “Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles.” All movies begin at dusk and are presented by Papillion Hy-Vee, Coca-Cola, Alegent Health and The Papillion Times.

Mayor Blinn says “This is a great way for families and friends to spend a summer evening and Papillion is happy to offer this opportunity. It’s also a great way for the city to feature the Sumtur Amphitheater’s comfortable atmosphere and flexibility as a venue. I encourage everyone to take advantage of this great opportunity.”
