Good News Notes

- Sergeant Brian Cluever of the Carol Stream Police Department wrote Chief Scarpelli a letter, complimenting Officer Erwin for his presentation during a class entitled, Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement. Sergeant Cluever said that Officer Erwin's expertise in the area of DUI and drug recognition was very apparent and that he did an exceptional job instructing the group of officers in the class.
- Sergeant Gramins recently received a verbal sentiment of thanks from a Skokie resident thanking Officer Orchard for his assistant with an elderly neighbor during a snow storm. He said that Officer Orchard was patrolling and he stopped to assist the elderly gentleman who was struggling with his car in the snow. Officer Orchard stopped and helped him brush his car off.
- A Chicago resident recently sent Chief Scarpelli a letter of appreciation for the life saving services provided by Sergeant Liebau and Officers Panizo, Long, Moore, Odea, Badagliacco, McCune, Riggs and Khan. He was dining at a Skokie restaurant when he experienced heart complications. He said that Skokie Police personnel reacted quickly and correctly to administer CPR and the AED machine. Their efforts saved his life, and he wanted to express his sincere appreciation. He said, "Skokie Police Department's training and leadership are assets to the department and my family and I are forever indebted to them."
- Niles Police Chief Dennis McEnerney recently sent Skokie Police Chief Scarpelli a letter of thanks for the assistance provided by Commander Weinman in a Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts investigation. A suspect was arrested and charged. Chief McEnerney said that he wanted to commend Commander Weinman on a job well done.
