

TOWN OF SOMERS
CONSERVATION COMMISSION

MEETING MINUTES
APRIL 8, 2013
7:00 PM TOWN HALL

I. CALL TO ORDER:

The meeting was called to order by Secretary Candace Alex. Members present were Dan Fraro, Karl Walton, Greg Genlot, Joan Formeister, Henry Broer and Lise Wood. Also present was David Askew, Wetland and Erosion Control Agent.

II. OLD BUSINESS: NONE

III. NEW BUSINESS

JR Russo and Associates gave a brief presentation to the commission regarding the wetlands. Application #663 at 171 Billings Road, LLC. Driveway, septic within an upland review area and 300 sq ft of fill and wetland at this address. This property is located at the intersection of Billings Road and Ninth District Road.

David Askew had no issues with the alternatives assessment. The commission members agreed they did a good job in rearranging the plans and position the new house to protect the wetlands.

A special meeting will be held on April 17th to further discuss and vote on the above application.

IV. AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION: NONE

V. STAFF REPORTS/CORRESPONDENCE/BILLS

Davis Askew reviewed the Wetland's Agent Report with the commission. Information covered included reviews of DEEP Reporting Forms, Hall Hill Logging, new developments on Durkee Road and a Trails Grant. There were 13 new building permits for compliance and 5 completed certificates of occupancy/inspections/lawn bonds. The only correspondence was the Winter Habitat Newsletter. There were no bills.
