VILLAGE PRESIDENT'S VETO AND WRITTEN OBJECTIONS

To: The Village Board of Trustees
Village of Sugar Grove, Illinois

Through: The Village Clerk

Re: Resolution Authorizing the Village Administrator to Execute an Engagement Letter with Odelson, Murphey, Frazier, & McGrath, LTD. for Special Counsel Services Related to Legislative and Conflict Matters

Members of the Village Board:

I hereby disapprove and veto the above-referenced Resolution in its entirety and return it to the Village Board with the following written objections. My decision is based on the Village's need for responsible expenditure of taxpayer funds, clearly defined legal representation, and public confidence in the integrity of Village decision-making.

Demonstrated need and defined scope.
I am not persuaded that the proposed engagement has been shown to be necessary or that its intended use is sufficiently clear. My concern is that the engagement could extend beyond the legislative and conflict-related purposes described when additional counsel was first proposed. Before authorizing another law firm, the Village should establish the specific municipal need, the matters counsel would handle, who may direct the work, and how that work would be coordinated with existing Village counsel. In addition, multiple Trustees have expressed a desire to work with attorney Burt Odelson, however it is unlikely that he would be the attorney directly working with the Village.

Protection of taxpayer funds.
A second legal engagement creates a risk of overlapping services, inconsistent advice, and disputes over authority that can increase legal expenses without a corresponding public benefit. The Village should not incur that risk without clear safeguards governing assignments, coordination, billing review, and financial accountability. Protecting the Village's financial position requires a demonstrated public benefit and meaningful control over the cost of additional representation.

Representation of the Village's interests.
Concerns have been raised that the proposed additional representation could be used to advance the interests of a particular developer rather than the interests of the Village as a whole. I do not make a finding of misconduct through this veto. Those concerns nevertheless warrant clarification before the Village proceeds. Any engagement must clearly identify the client, the public purpose to be served, the limits of counsel's assignment, and the process for addressing actual or potential conflicts of interest.

This veto is not an objection to the Board receiving appropriate, independent legal advice when a genuine municipal need or conflict requires it.

For these reasons, I withhold my approval and return the Resolution to the Village Board for reconsideration in accordance with applicable law. I request that the Village Clerk retain these written objections with the Resolution, place them in the Board's meeting materials, and record their receipt in the proceedings of the Board.

Respectfully,

President Stillwell
Village President, Village of Sugar Grove, Illinois

ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Dear Village Administrator Koeppel:

We are pleased to serve as Legislative Counsel or Special Counsel for the Village of Sugar Grove (the "Village" or "Client"). This letter will confirm that Odelson, Murphey, Frazier & McGrath, Ltd. (the "Firm") will serve as Legislative Counsel or Special Counsel to the Village, subject to the enclosed, "Terms of Engagement for Legal Services," and in connection with the services and terms and conditions set forth below, to wit:

1. Scope of Services. The Firm is retained solely as Special Legislative Counsel under Section 1-9E-5 of the Village Code and the authorizing resolution. Services are limited to matters expressly assigned by the Board of Trustees through an approved resolution, through a written authorization issued by the Board's designated liaison following majority vote of the Village Board, or the Village Attorney declares in writing that a conflict of interest exists. The Firm shall report directly and exclusively to the Board or their liaison concerning those matters. This engagement does not include routine administrative or operational matters.

2. Fees and Charges. Our services for these matters will be charged at the hourly rate as set forth below, together with out-of-pocket costs and disbursements. The attorneys, paralegals, legal assistants, and law clerks in our office who may be used in any matter assigned to our Firm by the Village, will be designated and supervised by us in accordance with our best judgment of your needs and cost efficiency. The Village will be billed at an hourly rate basis for services performed by the Firm in connection with any matters assigned to our office, based upon the actual time expended in increments of 0.10 of an hour.

   HOURLY RATES & EXPENSES

   Hourly billing fees are based on the following rates:

   a. ATTORNEYS: $215.00 PER HOUR.

   b. LAW CLERKS AND PARALEGALS: $75.00 PER HOUR.

In order to operate as efficiently as possible, our Firm may utilize other attorneys, law clerks, and other staff members within the Firm to assist with assigned matters, as we deem appropriate.

3. Reimbursement Costs. If applicable, costs and disbursements will be billed to you at our actual cost and may include court fees, court reporter and transcription costs, messenger, special mail or overnight delivery services, outside duplication costs, travel expenses, or other expenses deemed necessary to assist in the preparation or proper handling of your matter.

4. Limitation and Control of Services. It is understood that services we will render hereunder are at the express authorization and direction of the Mayor, Village Administrator, or the Board of Trustees. It is anticipated that such authorization and direction will be given either orally or in writing.

5. Billing Arrangement and Terms of Payment. The Firm shall submit invoices to the Client monthly. This procedure ensures that the Client has a current understanding of charges and can budget legal expenses. Each invoice is ordinarily reviewed by the attorney who has primary billing responsibility for the particular client prior to its submission to the client for payment. Of course, if there are any questions or possible errors, please inform us promptly so that adjustments can be made if warranted. Any objection you may have to our billing must be communicated, in writing, within 30 days of the date of each statement. Otherwise, all objections to our charges will be deemed waived.

   Payment of invoices shall be paid in accordance with the Local Government Prompt Payment Act. This means that within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice, payment should be made to the Firm. In addition, the Firm reserves the right to discontinue performance and to withdraw as your attorneys, regarding the status of any matter in which we are involved, and subject to only our ethical obligations in any invoice remaining unpaid for more than ninety (90) days after the date of the invoice. In the event of termination of our employment, Client shall be responsible for all our costs of collection, including legal expenses and the time spent at the rates set forth above.

6. Client Responsibilities and Indemnification. The Firm expects the Client to be actively involved with the matter(s) we are handling for them, to participate in meetings, and to provide whatever information and cooperation that may be necessary. In addition, the Firm expects to receive information from the Client that is accurate and complete.

7. OMFM/Client Property. Except for original corporate records or any records or files which we receive from you or third parties with the understanding that they belong to Client, it is agreed that all our files, copies of documents, correspondence, or other materials which we may accumulate in connection with our representation of you shall be the property of Odelson, Murphey, Frazier & McGrath, Ltd. Client may have copies at any time during our representation of you. Upon termination of the engagement and, upon request, the Firm will return Client's property to Client within thirty (30) days of such termination. However, it is specifically agreed that the Firm has the right to dispose of our files at such time as we determine that such files no longer need to be retained. After disposal, these materials will no longer be available.

8. Confidentiality. During the representation, either Party may obtain or have access to confidential or proprietary information of a nonpublic nature in order to effectively work together. The Parties agree to adhere to attorney-client privilege and further agree that they will not disclose, or grant others access to this information without the express written authorization of a duly authorized representative of the Client or Firm.

9. Termination. Client may terminate Firm's representation at any time, with or without cause, by notifying Firm. Client termination of Firm services will not affect its responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and any additional charges incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.
