TO: VILLAGE PRESIDENT & BOARD OF TRUSTEES
FROM: BRENT EICHELBERGER, VILLAGE ADMINISTRATOR
ALISON MURPHY, ASSISTANT TO THE VILLAGE ADMINISTRATOR/
VILLAGE CLERK
SUBJECT: DISCUSSION: LIQUOR CONTROL ORDINANCE REVISION
AGENDA: SEPTEMBER 6, 2022 REGULAR BOARD MEETING
DATE: AUGUST 26, 2022

ISSUE

Should the Board discuss revisions to the Village Code Chapter 2 Liquor Control.

DISCUSSION

Over the past year, the Village Board has approved several changes to the Village Liquor Control ordinance including creating new Class R – Gas Station/Convenience Store and Class S – Event Venue classifications, removing the restriction for Board members to hold a liquor license and amending the Class C – Temporary license to remove the fencing provision. These frequent amendments led staff to conduct a thorough review of the Liquor Control ordinance to see if the regulations could be modified to accommodate new businesses and uses without frequent amendments and to provide consistency across businesses. The staff review committee consisted of Administrator Eichelberger, Chief Rollins, and Village Clerk Murphy. Based on this review, the following changes to the ordinance were proposed.

1. Eliminate all current classifications and replace with the following:
 - a. On Premise – All Ages
 - b. On Premise – 21+
 - c. On Premise – Pour
 - d. Off Premise
 - e. Government – On and Off Premise
2. Each license classification can be issued as Annual or Temporary with temporary defined as up to 30 days per license year (any portion of a day is a full day).
3. Eliminate all specific classification restrictions and replace with general guidelines for all classifications.

- a. On Premise includes entire defined premises, indoor and outdoor
 - b. Application would require exhibit to define premises, enclose need case-by-case, food truck premises can be amended by approval during the license year.
 - c. On Premise includes catering, BYOB, hotel bar/restaurant (mini-bars under package)
 - d. BYOB is prohibited without a liquor license.
 - e. Hours of Operation 6:00 a.m. – 2:00 a.m.
 - f. No food/menu requirement
 - g. No seating requirement
 - h. No limit by volume
 - i. Off Premise must be in original sealed packaging
 - j. Off premises allows for 24/7 sales
 - k. Delivery Allowed with all Off Premise
 - l. As is currently required in the Code, all personnel who dispenses, sells, delivers, or serves liquor shall be BASSET trained.
 - m. Licensees must comply with state statute as outlined in the Liquor Control Act (235 ILCS 5/1-1 et seq).
 - n. Licensees must comply with all state and federal statutes.
4. Automatically include tasting with On Premise and Off Premise licenses
- a. Must follow state regulations
 - b. Not to be used for video gaming qualification purposes
5. Replace current fee structure for consistency
- a. $1,500.00 for all Annual On Premise and Off Premise licenses
 - b. $750.00 for all Temporary On Premise and Off Premise licenses

The Board discussed the proposed revisions at the June 21, 2022 Village Board Meeting. At that time, the Board directed staff to reconsider the Bring Your Own Beer (BYOB) provision, the hours of operations and the removal of food requirements.

BYOB - Staff reviewed the BYOB recommendation and continues to recommend allowing BYOB with a liquor license. All liquor license holders must be BASSET trained, therefore, the risk of over serving are lowered.

Hours of Operations - The proposed change to the hours of operation is a minor change to the current ordinance. At this time, licensees that hold a Class B – Packaged Liquor or a Class G – Golf Course, may conduct operations between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m. while all others are restricted to 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. The proposed change makes the hours of operations consistent across all classifications at 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. The Police Department has not experienced any problems with the current hours of operations.

Food Requirements – Currently the food service is required for Class E – Restaurant, Class F – Beer and Wine Restaurant, Class H – Hotel – in dining room and lounge, and Class L – Restaurant and Tavern. As the purpose of the ordinance revision is to simplify and add consistency across Village businesses, staff continues to recommend eliminating the food service requirement.

The attached ordinance reflects staff's recommendations.

COST

There will be attorney fees of approximately $1,500 for review of the ordinance and if approved a small cost for codifying the ordinance, which is already included in the budget.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Board discuss the proposed revision to the Liquor Control Ordinance and direct staff to place the revised Ordinance on an agenda for approval as presented.
