

Hamilton County Sheriff's Citizen Patrol Academies

Hamilton County Sheriff Simon L. Leis Jr. and Chief Deputy Sean Donovan announce they are accepting applications for upcoming Citizen's Patrol Academies which are scheduled to begin in September. Three separately operating academy classes will be conducted for Western, Northeastern, and Southeastern Hamilton County regions.

The Sheriff's Citizen Academy is an eleven-week program designed to provide the academy students with first hand information about how their Sheriff's Office operates. Participants will find out what it is like to be a Sheriff's Deputy and learn the role law enforcement plays within their community.

The curriculum will include such topics as constitutional law, crime scene investigation, patrol operations, use of force, and many other topics. During each academy, students will have the opportunity to go to the Sheriff's Tactical Training Center and after safety training, be given the opportunity to fire a service handgun.

Anyone who is a resident, owns a business, or is employed within Hamilton County is encouraged to apply. The program is designed to include anyone from age 18 to seniors.
