2. Pigeon Community Outreach Update

Chairman George Kenney reported that he and Jesse went to the Pigeon Community Center's historic celebration last weekend. He said the people they spoke with seemed very excited about the upcoming art project that WPAC will be doing for them. He added that grant applications are moving along, with the TDA grant having been submitted, and the T-Mobile grant about to be submitted.

3. Mountain Lion Sculpture Donation

Assistant Town Manager, Jesse Fowler, reported that the Town Council approved placing the Mountain Lion sculpture in front of Town Hall. He said that Mr. Blevins, the donor, is also happy with the location. Ashten and George offered to be present for the installation of the sculpture. Jesse said that Mr. Blevins requested a photo of WPAC members in front of the sculpture after it is placed. He also said he is working on getting the piece appraised so a letter recognizing his donation and the value can be sent to Mr. Blevins. There was discussion on whether or not there will be a donor and artist recognition or educational plaque in front of the sculpture.

4. Fundraising Event Opportunities

Assistant Town Manager, Jesse Fowler, reported that he has secured a table to sell t-shirts and booklets at the flea market. Candace and Jesse said they would set up the booth on June 2nd. George offered to table with Jesse on the 3rd from 7am to 10am, and Steve said he'd take over for the 10am-1pm shift.

5. Other Business

Skip reported no progress on Gladys Knight. Ashten asked about an update on the Wall Street alleyway mural. Jesse said it's in the design phase and Hornsby Creative is doing the design. Skip brought up the policy on repeated absences. Jesse said that the removal of a Commission member is up to the discretion of the Town Council, but that the Commission may recommend by vote that the Council remove a commission member.

6. Adjourn

There being no further business to discuss, Skip Middleton made a motion, seconded by Steve Lloyd, to adjourn. The motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 4:57 p.m.
