

ADVISORY COMMISSION MEETING

November 14, 2006
6:30 PM

MINUTES

The meeting was called to order at 6:35 pm.

In attendance were; Kenny Mull, Rhonda Schandavel, Lee Starnes, Dot Evans, Wallace Messer, Michelle Schumacher and Rhett Langston. Sara Massie, Ed Moore and Don Frady called to say that they would be unable to attend.

Kenny read the minutes from the October meeting. Wallace made the motion to approve the minutes as read and Lee second. Approved by all.

Old Business:

- None

New Business:

- We had close to 250 kids at the November school dance. Kids bringing knives are beginning to become an issue. I will speak to Chief Hollingshed about possible solutions to this problem.
- We now have over 80 participants in our Silver Sneaker program.
- The Fritsbee disc golf course now has 1 permanent baskets.
- We are now offering a step class on Mondays and Thursdays at 5:30 pm that is free to our members. Our strategy is to try to offer free classes to our members during peak hours of 6 to 8 am and 5 to 7 pm.
- The basketball season is going well.
- We had the highest attendance at the Wayneville Recreation Center for the month of October than any other previous year.
- Golden Ticket Promotions to each elementary school is going well. So far we have had Bethel Elementary and Central Elementary attend. Clyde Elementary will be our guests this Sunday.
- We are beginning a new marketing system utilizing emails from our members. This is also open to the general public. We will email announcements pertaining to our classes, programs and special events as one of the ways in marketing our department.
- We are working on a new look for our web site. We are shooting for December 1 to launch it.
- We went on a small retreat to take a tour of the Reuter YMCA and the Downtown YMCA.
- Kristen Curtis, Sabrina Caldwell, Joel Brookshire and Scot Worley all went to the NCRPS Conference in New Bern, NC. Our Halloween event went very well.

Other Business:

- We will not have a December meeting. Instead, everyone is invited to the Wayneville Town Employee Appreciation Luncheon on December 15.

There being no further business, Kenny made the motion to adjourn and Lee seconded it. Approved by all. 7:23 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rhett Langston
