Old Business:

- None

New Business:

- Information is now being gathered for the spring brochure. It is due to be published on Friday, March 14.
- We had over 2,500 individuals participate in the "Recreation Resolution" promotion.
- We are in the process of organizing a group called the "Vision Team" for our department. It will be comprised of individuals representing various age groups from the community. We will meet quarterly and the purpose is to give our department insight in programs, special events and facilities for the next quarter as well as the next fiscal year.
- The survey is still be conducted for a possible new skate park at the town's website. March 1 will be the last day to post a response and Rhett will have the results prepared in graphs and statistics for our board to review at the next meeting.
- We have two new positions filled. Mike Goodwin will be the Assistant Director and Kelly Shea will be the Youth Program Coordinator. We are very excited to have them both on board.
- We have now started offering child care free to members of the Rec Center Monday—Friday from 8—10 am and from 4:30—7:30 pm.
- We are focusing more on youth fitness and have plans to change the game room into a youth fitness room. This will include fun items of exercise for kids.

Other Business:

- None

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rhett Langston
