Old Business:

- None

New Business:

- The monthly report from September was reviewed.
- The plans for the new restrooms should be ready for bid in November. Our goal is to have this awarded just after Thanksgiving.
- As of today we have raised just over $1,400 for the tennis courts.
- The floors are being refinished in the aerobics room, racquetball courts and gym. The racquetball courts and aerobics room should be finished within a week. The gym should be completed by the end of October. It will have a different design.
- We will begin interviewing for the assistant programmer soon. Resumes are still being accepted.
- Our senior trips will continue into November and then we will take a break until March.
- Adult and master basketball leagues will begin in November.
- The Vance Street Softball Field has been crowned and the new sod for the infield lip is beginning to grow.
- The judo tournament (October 6 & 7), bridge tournament (September 15—17) and Kiwanis bbq (October 5) all went well.
- Healthy Haywood has just over 1,200 participants signed up so far. That's about half of the enrollment from a year ago.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:15 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rhett Langston
