New Business:

- Rhett presented the March monthly report.
- The new timing system for the pool should be here by late July.
- Jimmy Sorrells proposed to have a chicken show at the Old Armory on Saturday, October 22. The event would be advertised in a national publication called the Poultry Press. Jimmy expects to have 600 to 800 chickens the first year. The second year should bring over 1,000 chickens. The event will be free admission except there will be an fee of $2 to $3 per chicken plus clean up fee. The chickens would spend the night in the Old Armory and the show would begin Saturday morning. Everything should be completed by 5 pm on Saturday. All of the Advisory Commission thought it would be a good idea.

- Linda O’Niel asked what steps need to take place in order to ask the County for funding in lieu of charging differential rates at the Waynesville Recreation Center. Rhett said he would ask Mike Morgan which steps need to be taken.
